

Home Bible Study Loveland, Colorado January 29

When Paul and Patti Ludwick read in the January Partner's newsletter that I was going to be in Denver and Colorado Springs at the end of January, they emailed me asking if I could again speak in their home. I agreed and we set the date. Then my laryngitis hit. By Friday night I was practically limited to sign language. Fortunately Steve Lewis came with me and did much of the talking for me. Still, it was an excellent discussion.

I stayed Friday night with Paul and Patti and then was able to visit with them on Saturday. I spent Saturday night with Steve and Shan Lewis. Because I was feeling really lousy on Sunday morning, I asked Steve to speak for me in the two Sunday School classes I was scheduled to speak in. I ended up flying out early and getting home to recuperate.

Meeting with Dr. Jody Dillow Colorado Springs, Colorado January 29

Steve Lewis traveled with me. My voice was really shaky by Friday morning. I was croaking more than talking. We met at BEE headquarters and Al Bridges, the President of BEE, met with us as well. We talked about the upcoming conference and the spread of the Free Grace message in the U.S. and around the world. It was a very profitable discussion, despite my laryngitis.

Denver Rescue Mission January 28

Lon Gregg, the head of the chaplains at Denver Rescue Missions, invited me in to make two presentations and then field questions. I spoke on "The Benefits of Christ's blood, Restricted and Unrestricted," and then later on "The Biblical Concept of Paradise."

I had started coming down with a cold on Wednesday. Fortunately my voice was still fairly strong. Dr. Steve Lewis of Rocky Mountain Bible College and Seminary came to the session as well and he and Lon helped carry the discussion, making it easier on my voice.

Please pray for: those whom the Lord wants to come to the conference to be able to do so, for the health of the conferees and the conference speakers, for the finances needed to run the ministry, for the printing of the commentary to be done well and on time for the conference, my work on Zane's Romans commentary (I have completed the translation and commentary on Rom 14:16-15:9 and plan to complete all of it by April 30th), and the impact of our newsletter, journal, and website in the Commentary Is at the Printer!

For about four years now I've been saying that the commentary could be to the printer this year. Well, it finally is there. What a joy it is.

We had to change from one volume to two because of the massive length. The printer had told us that we could do a 1,050 page one-volume book. Well, it grew to over 1,300 pages by the end of the typesetting. We figured we'd just have to pay more. Wrong. They said it couldn't be done as one volume since only major publishers have binderies that can bind such a large book.

So, Volume 1 is Matthew through Acts and Volume 2 is Romans to Revelation. The first volume is about 620 pages and the second around 720 pages. Actually each is plenty big enough by itself, so it is probably best we went to two volumes.

The price will be $29.95. However, for those of you who come to the conference, it will be offered there at a special price of $20.00. The printer tells us we should have the commentary by April 15th, four days before the conference starts.

Thanks so much for your support of this ministry and this project. It truly is surprising that we were able to do such a major project.

I finished my four-part series of the Book of Ruth, covering Chapter 4 and the marriage of Boaz and Ruth and their birth of son, Obed, the grandfather of King David.

In the Lord's Supper meeting I spoke on the topic, "Make Your Life Count," from 1 Cor 3:10-15. I shared some insights I've gained on that passage over the years.
