

St Louis Regional at Fenton Crossing Bible Chapel

Upland Bible Church Las Vegas, NV October 9-10

Feasting with the Vegas Vanselow

I much enjoy speaking at this church. Pastor

Rich Olsen is very encouraging. He calls me Rapid Robert for my race walking experiences at the World Senior games. I go there after speaking at UBC (see below).

In the first hour, I spoke on Mark 7:1-16, "Don't Nullify God's Word by Your Traditions." In the second hour, I spoke on "Five Modern Traditions That Contradict God's Word." Everyone was very receptive.

It is always a pleasure to Kevin, Cindy, Shawn, Ken, and Lucas speak to people who are hungry for solid Bible teaching.

On Saturday night I was treated to a feast at the home of Tim and Daria Vanselow (where I also stayed). Rich and Debbie Olsen came, as did Al and Sheri Bingham. We celebrated Sheri's birthday.

Huntsman World Senior Games St. George, UT October 11

This was my twelfth year competing at the Gezer Olympics. Unfortunately, instead of the normal two or three men in my age group (65-69), there were six in the 1,500-meter race walk and eight in the 1,500-meter power walk. I placed fourth in men's 65-69 in the race walk and second in the power walk.

The Book Podcast October 21

I (Bob) was on a one-hour podcast with Pastor Scott Moffatt, Dr. Gary Gromacki, and Gabriel Penfield. They interviewed me about the doctrine of eternal rewards based on my book The Road to Reward. You can view the podcast at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gqXh1yT0Uks>.

St. Louis GES Regional Conference October 22-23

Shawn, Ken, and Lucas were warmly welcomed by Kevin and Cindy Fitzgerald at Fenton Crossing Bible Chapel. The conference was well-attended by enthusiastic people. We covered both introductory and more advanced topics in Free Grace thought. Lucas focused on introducing Free Grace topics such as eternal life, eternal rewards, and the distinction between salvation and discipleship. Ken Yates treated special issues where Free Grace does a better job at understanding an issue in context, such as the warning passages in Hebrews, or the difference between repentance and confession. Meanwhile, Shawn addressed some areas that need clarification, such as on the nature of believing, seeing the importance of eating for fellowship, and suggesting a practical way of studying the Bible to renew your mind one irrational thought at a time.

Christian Chiropractor Association October 1-2 Lancaster, PA

On October 1-2, I (Ken) taught at a conference for the Christian Chiropractor Association at Lancaster, PA. The theme of the conference was the relevancy of the book of Hebrews in today's world. I taught three sessions.

This was the third time that I spoke at the conference. I always have such a good time with this group. It is like being with family. They always ask a lot of questions. Special thanks go out to Marcia and Bob for making the conference a success and taking care of all the arrangements for Kathryn and me.
