

PARTNERS IN GRACE

MAY 2023

Bayside Community Church

TAMPA, FL | APRIL 15-16

It was good to be back, but challenging since Sharon has not been feeling well lately. I hated to leave her. But she hung in there, and the ministry went well. I spoke on Biblical contemplation and contrasted that with what passes as contemplation for many Evangelicals today.

I enjoyed walking on the bay Saturday afternoon, eating out with FG friends Saturday night and Sunday after church, and ministering the Word to people who are hungry for it.

Coppell (TX) Bible Fellowship, Your Bible Questions Class

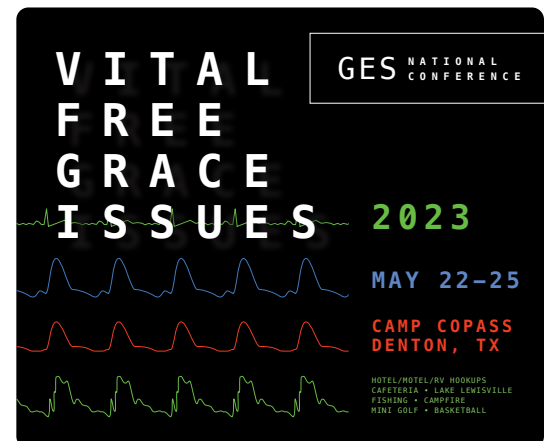

APRIL 2, 9, 23, 30

Our class keeps on with outstanding questions and interactions. Essentially, we meditate on Scripture together. I really enjoy this class. We even have people joining via Zoom from Mexico, Spain, Canada, and Germany.

GES Annual Conference

CAMP COPASS, DENTON, TX | MAY 22-25

At press time, registrations are over 175. We might exceed 200 once again. We look forward to seeing many of you in person. Those who can't make it can view the messages live or later on the YouTube Grace Evangelical Society channel.

Ken and Kathryn's Ministries

Just another routine month. Pam broke her foot at JFK in New York and missed the mission trip. Ken was delayed two days taking care of Pam. After several days with our translators in Italy, Ken and Kathryn were off to Zambia for two weeks of teaching at Ambassadors Intl Univ, a Bible college, in Chongwa, two hours from Lusaka. Ken also spoke at New Hope Baptist Church in Chongwa. Ken and Kathryn answered many questions, cleared up confusion on the gospel and Christian-life issues, and gave away many GES books.

They returned on April 23 and have a few weeks of regular work back in South Carolina (blogs, podcasts, videos, articles, Zoom classes, preaching before they're off to the GES annual conference in Denton, TX.

The Gospel Is Still Under Siege Goes to Print

On Friday, April 28, we uploaded the files to our printer. We should have it in-house by the start of our conference on May 22. We hope you like it.
